Thank you to the Deer Park Neighbors who have already joined our "open government" campaign. We see green ribbons going up in every part of town. (Need a ribbon? We deliver! Just ask...and thank you for keeping them off your mail boxes.) We also receive thanks for the research we do and information we share. Best of all, DPN members bring news to our attention.

Recent articles in local papers include:

"Save the silos? Oh, I guess so!", Tribune, August 1,

Point of information: When you browse the Daily Herald web site (<http://dailyherald.com>), you need to look for Deer Park news under their Cook County link. We have written and called to request that they also post news of Deer Park under their Lake County link--no success yet, but we'll keep trying. Feel free to add your voices to our requests.

Thursday, 8/3/06, WBEZ-FM's "Eight Forty-Eight" had a segment on Tax Increment Financing Districts (TIFs). You can download or stream it at:

The next meeting of the Board of Trustees will be Monday, August 21, 7 pm at Quentin School. If you would like to be placed on the agenda for that meeting, your request needs to be at Village Hall no later than Monday, August 14. Or you may sign in for a Public Comment when you arrive at the meeting; limited to 5 minutes.

Hope to see you at the August 21 Board of Trustees Meeting...Deer Park Neighbors will be providing cold water for your refreshment!
