Deborah and Al wish all Deer Park Neighbors a happy holiday. Whether you are traveling or waiting to welcome family and friends to your home, may all arrive safe and sound. There is something so special about this time of year, no matter if you celebrate Christmas, Chanukah, Kwanza or just enjoy the day off—we have many blessings to count even in this dreadful economy and terrible weather pattern.

We want to thank you for the trust you have placed in DPN, for keeping us up on the news all over the village, for taking more time to come out and see your village government at work and for working together, friend to friend, neighbor to neighbor, to make Deer Park an even better place to live, work and shop.

We wish you health, peace and prosperity for the coming year, and keep those calls and emails coming. Best to all.

TOGETHER, WE ARE STRONGER.
